NOMINATION MEETINGS SCHEDULED FOR THE CITRUS RESEARCH BOARD

TO THE CITRUS PRODUCER ADDRESSED:

The term of office of some members and alternate members of the Citrus Research Board (Board) will expire on July 31, 2014. Therefore, the California Department of Food and Agriculture (Department) is calling district nomination meetings for the purpose of receiving nominations of producers qualified to fill open positions for the period beginning August 1, 2014 and ending July 31, 2017.

A complete schedule of the nomination meetings and a current listing of the Citrus Research Board members and alternates, indicating the positions for which nominations will be received, are printed on the reverse side of this notice. Following are some general rules regarding the nomination proceedings.

- Any owner, officer, or employee of an entity in California in the business of producing, or causing to be produced for market, 750 or more standard field boxes, or the equivalent, of any variety of citrus is qualified to participate in these proceedings.
- If you wish to nominate a person to serve on the Board at the nomination meetings, you should determine the candidate's eligibility and willingness to serve prior to the nomination meeting.
- An individual person is entitled to represent only one legal entity at a nomination meeting.
- In the case of a partnership, only one of the partners may vote.
- In the case of a corporation, a person affiliated with the corporation, preferably an officer, may represent the corporation
- A married couple operating a production entity is entitled to just one vote, unless each spouse owns and operates separate and distinct entities.
- In order to participate in a district's nomination meeting, a business entity must have citrus production within that district. Any entity with production in more than one district must choose a single district in which to participate to vote. If a separate production entity can be proven as the operating entity in another district, the person qualified to act as the representative of that entity may vote in that district, even if he/she has voted as a representative of another entity in another district. Essentially, each separate citrus producing business entity is entitled to one vote in the district in which it operates.
- Voting by proxy is not permitted.

Please review the schedule and note the meeting in your district and the positions for which nominations will be received. We strongly encourage you to participate in this important process for selecting your representatives. If you have any questions regarding the nomination meetings, please call Ken Keck, President of the Citrus Research Board at (559) 738-0246 or call Joe Monson at this office.

Sincerely,

Robert Maxie, Chief
Marketing Branch
